Preface: The Facial Skin Defect: A Reconstructive Opportunity ix
Anthony M. Bunnell

The Facial Skin Defect: Preop to Postop 1
Anthony M. Bunnell

- Introduction 1
- Preoperative planning 1
  - Anesthetic evaluation 1
  - Clinical photography 2
  - Immediate versus delayed reconstruction 2
- Surgical technique 2
  - Intraoperative planning 2
  - Postoperative considerations 4

The Nasolabial Flap 7
Ashish A. Patel and Allen Cheng

- Introduction 7
- Anatomy 7
- Preoperative planning 7
- Surgical approach 7
- Donor site closure 8
- Modifications 8
- Special considerations for recipient sites 8
  - Oral cavity reconstruction 8
- Nasal ala reconstruction 10
- Complications 10
- Cases 10

Cervicofacial Flap 13
Al Haitham Al Shetawi

- Introduction: nature of the problem 13
- Surgical technique 13
  - Preoperative planning 13
  - Preparation and patient positioning 13
- Surgical approach 13
- Potential complications 14
- Pearls and pitfalls 14
- Immediate postoperative care 14
- Clinical results in the literature 14
- Summary 15

Rhomboid Flap
Heidi H. Hon and Srinivasa Rama Chandra

- Introduction 17
- Historical perspective 17
- Indications and contraindications 17
- Surgical considerations 18
- Anesthetic considerations 18
- Flap design 18
- Surgical technique 19
- Pearls and pitfalls 21
  - What is pivotal restraint?
- Acknowledgments 22

Paramedian Forehead Flap
Daniel Hammer, Fayette Williams, and Roderick Kim

- Introduction 23
- Surgical technique 23
  - Preoperative planning 23
  - Preparation and patient positioning 23
  - Surgical approach 23
  - Surgical procedure (2-stage paramedian forehead flap) 23
  - Potential complications 27
  - Pearls and pitfalls 27
  - Immediate postoperative care 28
  - Clinical results in the literature 28
- Summary 28

Keystone Flap
Kyle S. Ettinger, Rui P. Fernandes, and Kevin Arce

- Introduction 29
- Basic island perforator flap anatomy and physiology 29
- Keystone flap classification and design 31
  - Type I 31
  - Type II 31
  - Type III 32
  - Type IV 32
- Preoperative planning 33
- Preparation and patient positioning 33
- Surgical approach/procedure 34
- Immediate postoperative care and recovery 36
- Potential complications 37
- Pearls and pitfalls 38
- Clinical results in literature 41
- Summary 41
Glabellar Flaps for Reconstruction of Skin Defects 43
Alba Sanjuan-Sanjuan, Marek Ogledzki, and Carlos A. Ramirez

Introduction 43
Glabellar flap 43
  History 43
  Indications 44
Surgical technique 44
  Preoperative planning 44
  Preparation and patient positioning 44
  Surgical procedure 44
  Potential complications 47
  Pearls and pitfalls 47
  Immediate postoperative care 48
Rehabilitation and recovery 48
Summary 48

Bilobed Flaps 49
Cong Vo, William Walsh Thomas, Hans C. Brockhoff II, and Daniel Petrisor

Introduction 49
Nasal anatomy 49
Surgical technique 50
Modifications 50
Pearls and pitfalls 50
  Advantages 50
  Limitations 51
